FRIDAY, JAN. 2, 1891.

On Monday the electors of the town will be required to decide who are to manage its civic affairs during the coming year. In so doing it is the duty of every voter to lay aside all personal matters and carefully consider which of the aspirants for office will manage most efficiently the finances of the town. There are many public improvements which must be made, yet it is not well that the town be plunged headlong into debt to meet the expenses of these improvements. During the coming year there are sidewalks to be put down, streets to be opened up, a town hall to be erected, fire protection to be provided, and many other things that require to be done. Taking these in the order of their importance, no one can fail to see that of the most importance are fire protection and the putting down of sidewalks. As before, we again say, that in making these improvements economy—we do not mean stinginess—must be exercised; for with all possible economy there will be sufficient debt contracted. At present there is scarcely any public debt on this town, yet the expenses of necessary improvements will convince us that it is best to practice economy while it is possible. There are instances in which towns have so recklessly expended money that bankruptcy was the necessary result. Of the gentlemen who are candidates for municipal honors there is little danger that any of them will be willing to contract unnecessary debt, all being deeply interested in the welfare of the town. Again we call upon each elector to exercise his right of franchise in voting for the men who will make the best public officers, not for the men who have been most successful in extracting a promise to vote in a certain way, or for some personal friendship.

Just at present the English political world is much agitated over the recent developments in the conduct of Mr. Parnell. In this we find proof that at least an appearance of morality is demanded by the ablest of English statesmen. True it is that Mr. Parnell still retains a following, but nevertheless the strongest members of his former following have deserted him, and have promptly demanded his retirement from the leadership of the party which seeks freedom for Ireland. How different is it on this side of the Atlantic? A member of the Privy Council of Canada can commit a crime scarcely less immoral, and still continue to be an unmolested cabinet minister.

The Parnell struggle continues to occupy a large—looking from this distance one feels disposed to say a surprisingly large—space in English papers and cablegrams. Notwithstanding the bull-dog ferocity with which the discredited champion holds his place in the thickest of the fight, it is becoming more evident that he is fighting a losing battle. The clergy is arrayed against him in almost solid phalanx, and the clergy in Ireland, especially when it represents a moral idea which appeals with peculiar power to the best instincts of Irishmen, is a host not easily vanquished. Evidently, too, and naturally, the zealous and belligerent faction which supports Parnell is largely composed of the worse rather than the better elements of the population. These may make the noisier shout, until fatigue and and hoarseness come but the weightier and more reputable classes who are with his opponents will probably show better staying powers. Meanwhile, and this is the important fact for other parts of the Empire, the Home Rule party is, for the present hopelessly divided, and consequently comparatively powerless. If, as Mr. Gladstone is reported to have said, "Home Rule is saved," its salvation is pretty surely postponed to an indefinite, if not a far off future. Meanwhile what will be the attitude and action of the three British parties which now make up the Parliament? It is scarcely possible that the fact, if such it be, that the Tories are supporting Parnell's candidate in the pending election can have any political significance out of the constituency. It is almost inconceivable that any alliance or concerted action could take place between the Government and the Parnellites save on terms of compromise that must be fatal to one party or the other. Further, waiving all questions of political principle and consistency, the first clear indication of such an understanding would almost certainly be the signal for the return of the Liberal Unionists to their old allegiance. The overthrow of the Government would speedily follow.

At the beginning of each year the intelligent man—especially if he be the head of a family—decides upon the papers he will subscribe for. This is a matter of very great importance, and as the amount thus to be invested is usually limited, not a little thought must be exercised if a wise choice is to be made. Next to the local paper—for no public spirited citizen will fail to support one or other of his home papers—the journal which affords the best value for the money in this country is Grip, our national humorous journal. Its weekly visits freighted as it always is with fresh bright and cleanly fun of pen and pencil are events of the most pleasurable description. In Canadian homes from the Atlantic to the Pacific, Grip is hailed with delight by the children as well as their elders and for all it is a source of profitable instruction and healthful laughter. The splendid success of Grip which is now in its thirty-sixth volume, is a credit to Canada, for in the opinion of good judges so far as pith and point are concerned, it stands in the front rank of the world's comic journalism. It costs only $2 per year, and, if patronage were always granted in accordance with merit it would be in every Canadian household without exception. Parents who wish their growing boys and girls to be influenced in a right way should not overlook this powerful agency. We have made arrangements with the publishers by which we are enabled to offer Grip and the Times for $3.50 per year. Subscriptions may be sent direct to Grip, Toronto, or to this office.

Coughs, Colds, Group.

Allen's Lung Balm was introduced to the public after its merits for the positive cure of such diseases had been fully tested. It excites expectoration and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; changes the secretions and purifies the blood; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect that it is warranted to break up the most distressing cough in a few hours' time, if not of too long standing. It contains no opium in any form and is warranted to be perfectly harmless to the most delicate child. There is no real necessity for so many deaths by consumption when Allen's Lung Balm will prevent it if only taken in time. For Croup, whooping, and all diseases that lead to it, such as Coughs, neglected Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma and all diseases of the lungs, ALLEN'S LUNG BALM is the Great Modern Remedy. For Croup and Whooping Cough it is almost a specific. It is an old tried remedy, and sold universally at 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. The 25-cent bottles are put out to answer the constant call for a Good and Low-Priced COUGH CURE. If you have not tried the Balm, call for a 25-cent bottle to test it.

GENERAL NEWS

New Orleans, La., Dec. 28.—Dr. M. A. Dauphin for twenty years the president of the Louisiana Lottery company, died here to-day. He was a native of Alsace-Lorraine and was 53 years old.

Cincinnati, Dec. 27.—The freight depot of the Pittsburg, Cincinnati & St. Louis railroad was entirely destroyed by fire to night. The loss is $25,000.

St. Paul, Dec. 28.—The Bijou theatre in Minneapolis was burned to-day. Loss $10,000.

Dublin, Dec. 27.—Chief Secretary Balfour has reconsidered his original determination and now declines to speak in the Province of Ulster during January.

London, Dec. 28.—Gladstone will spend Monday, his eighty-first birthday, at Hawarden, in the quiet of his family circle and it is understood that he desires not to be the object of any special and wearisome demonstration. Age is making its mark on the great leader and the events of the past few months have told on him worse than advancing years. Moorely, who paid a visit to Gladstone since the adjournment for the holidays, has made a statement privately that causes no little anxiety in Liberal circles not that Gladstone is actually ill, but that he is dazed and overcome by the terrible spectacle of Irish disunion and strife, and that while still as devoted as ever to home rule, he sees that obstacles have been raised that only the utmost courage and determination can surmount.

London, Dec. 28.—A terrible accident is reported from Warwick on Avon. While several thousand skaters were disputing themselves on the river at that place the ice suddenly and without warning cracked in the middle of the river. An immense fissure opened, through which some 500 of the skaters were plunged into icy waters. A cry of horror arose from the spectators, while the more fortunate of the skaters lost no time in reaching the river banks. When the first shock was over a number of people hurried to the rescue of the drowning skaters, and a number of them were pulled out but it is feared that many were drowned, as a large number were missing. The latest report states that seventeen bodies have been recovered, among them several women.

Montreal, Dec. 27.—The Gazette will announce to-morrow that Sir Joseph Hickson has resigned the position of general manager of the Grand Trunk railway and is to be succeeded by L. J. Sergeant, the present general traffic manager. The resignation was entirely unexpected, and has created surprise and much regret, as it is understood that continued ill health was the cause of it. Sir Joseph will continue to reside here, and will maintain a semi official connection with the road.

Quebec, Dec. 27.—The morning sitting of the legislature was taken up with a discussion of the new $10,000,000 loan which was strongly opposed by several supporters of the government who spoke and voted against the resolution, which was however adopted by a majority of fifteen.

Halifax, Dec. 28.—George Morrill, living near River St. John, was accidentally killed yesterday through the discharge of his revolver while he was cleaning it.

Ottawa, Dec. 28.—Mr. Pimslor arrived here to-day and will have a conference to-morrow with the minister of marine regarding the Canadian cattle trade.

Montreal, Dec. 28.—C. A. Danesereau, local politician has been appointed postmaster. Lamothe, the present incumbent, will be superannuated.

Toronto, Dec. 28.—James Beety Q. C. has decided not to run for mayor. This leaves Mayor Clarke alone in the field.

Hamilton, Dec. 28.—Gas has been struck in paying quantities on the farm of Robert Ramsay, three miles east of Bolton.

Hamilton Dec. 28.—F. Clarke's dwelling and store were burned. The loss is $6,000; insurance $2,000.

Halifax, Dec. 24.—A man named Reed belonging to Handport, jumped of a train near Wendover this evening and was probably fatally injured.

A man named Patrick Mack fell from a wagon while driving from Rawdon to Mount Uniacke yesterday and broke his neck. He was intoxicated.

John Alexander Thomson has been appointed inspector of boilers and machinery for the province of British Columbia vice A. W. Russell.

Capt. Deville Surveyor General, fell from the C. P. R. telegraph office to-night and broke his leg.

Montreal, Dec. 24.—A despatch from Philadelphia says: "Mrs Burland, wife of G. B. Burland, of Montreal, president of the British American Bank Note company, died here this morning. The remains will be taken home on Friday for interment."

Halifax, Dec. 24.—At Little Bay Newfoundland, Nicholas J. Cantwell of Lizzie Harbor, fell two hundred feet down a mine, and was instantly killed.

Quebec, Dec. 24.—It is said that Dr. Grandbois, M. P., has been appointed collector of customs here.

London, Dec. 24.—At Osterburg Saxony last night a citizen named Kresler his wife and three children were suffocated in their apartment by escaping gas from a coal stove.

Cincinnati, Dec. 24.—The Music Hall presented a remarkable scene to-night, the occasion being the Children's Christmas festival under the auspices of the Cincinnati Post. The interior of the edifice was decorated with bunting, evergreens and appropriate mottoes. Upwards of four thousand people occupied the seats and were attentive listeners to the speeches and music. The national melody was performed on the great organ by Prof. Boex, after which Reverend Doctor Henderson offered a fervent prayer. When Milton A. McRae, manager of the Post and chairman of the meeting, rose to speak, the children greeted him with vociferous applause and it was two or three minutes before order was restored by the police in attendance. At nine o'clock Santa Claus made his appearance and made a short speech. Shortly after the several tons of toys, sweatmeats and useful articles of wearing apparel were distributed among the children and the festivities closed. The little tots as they filed out with their arms filled with toys appeared as though it was the happiest moment of their lives.

Glasgow, Dec. 24.—The board of directors of the Northeastern railway has held a meeting and it is understood that the board is endeavoring to arrange for a conference with a committee representing the strikers, in the hope that an understanding may be arrived at between them by which the strike can be terminated.

DO
you read the Montreal Witness? is a question which thousands of men and women are asking just at this time in Canada. The reason is that the value of this paper is above all question. It is well written and is a compendium of all that is being done or thought in the world. It devotes itself to fighting for the right. Whether you are old or young it will interest and all who live in the same house with you. This paper offers several attractive plans for increasing a salary large remuneration. One of these is the Free Reading Library plan whereby every subscriber, by taking this paper may become a member of a lending library which shall have few or many good books for him to according as the plan has been energetically worked or not. It also offers to its active canvassers and agents good cash commission or valuable premiums which amply pay for all the labor and time put into working for it while at same time conferring a benefit on all subscribers who may be induced to read it. One of the most attractive features of the Witness which is peculiar to it alone in Canada and which has been adopted in the United States on the same lines as first laid down by the MONTREAL WITNESS, is the prize offered to scholars in public schools for the best true stories of life and adventure in Canada. From east and west to the Atlantic and to the Pacific Ocean, including Newfoundland, the key island of the Gulf, have come stories some of which have been written in a literary style befitting professional writers, and many of which contain new and valuable facts in Canadian history. Amongst the many authorities who to the excellence of these stories are the judges in each province who award prizes and the inspectors and teachers of schools in every portion of the Dominion and Newfoundland, as well as the newspaper writers who speak kindly of them and publish some of them. In addition to the House hold and Question and Answer department the Market Reports, the lively and stirring Editorial Articles, the Serial Stories, and in fact the whole body of the paper, make it a welcome member of the family in every household where it is taken. In November the WITNESS was enlarged by more than a page, thus making an enlargement equal to two pages a week within two years, adding greatly to its value and interest. The WITNESS is mailed free to subscribers in Canada; Great Britain and the United States for $1.00 a year; the DAILY WITNESS for $3.00 a year; and the NORTHERN WITNESS for $2.00 a year. In a recent issue of the Winnipeg Free Press we notice an excellent cut of our court house on the hill. Our big cotem, has been showing a kindly interest in Prince Albert affairs, for which the residents of both town and district are grateful. This, no doubt, is owing to the Free Press having a live correspondent in the town.

YOU

Visitors to Montreal find the printing establishment of the Family Herald and Weekly Star to be one of the most interesting sights of town. On publication days, Tuesdays and Wednesdays, all day long there is the hum of the gigantic lightning presses turning out complete copies of the Family Herald and Weekly Star at the rate of twenty-two thousand copies an hour printed, cut and folded by automatic machinery, without being touched by the hand. Then there is an army of men and women operating the machines that put on the address labels, following which are turned over to gangs of mailers preparing the papers for the delivery to the Post Office by mammoth express. One of the busiest places in this country is the Office of the Family Herald and Weekly Star, Montreal.

Willoughby, Dec. 30.—A very interesting and successful concert was held in the Presbyterian Church here last night. The concert was arranged to pay off existing liabilities on the church building and the people of the neighborhood showed their earnest and practical sympathy with the object in view by turning out in large numbers and completely filling the very neat and comfortable little church. Appropriate addresses were given by Rev. Mr. McLeod, and Mr. Paulsen, of Willoughby, D. H. MacDowell, M. P., who performed the duties of chairman very agreeably and Dr. Jardine, of Prince Albert. Several ladies from Prince Albert were present three of whom—Mrs. Jardine, Miss McKenzie and Miss Stewart, assisted the local talent in carrying out very successfully the long and varied programme, after which a splendid supper was served in the building, and the evening's entertainment was brought to a close.

We take pleasure in directing attention to The Week, the only really high class literary journal in the Dominion. The Christmas number just received, will prove a rich treat to its readers. The letter press is abundant, varied and readable. There are well written notes on current public questions; a graphic London Letter by Walter Powell; a bright Indian sketch entitled "On the March at Christmastide," by "A. H.," a clever Christmas story by Arnold Hauwin, M. A.; "Notes on Ghosts," by Andrew Lang; an interesting paper on the "Indian Messiah"; No. 32 of the Prominent Canadian series, being a readable sketch of Mr. Charles Mair the accomplished author of "Tecumseh," and well known as a public spirited Canadian. The poetry in this number is very good, and appropriate to the season. All the regular departments, such as Art Notes, Music and the Drama, Library Table and Literary and Personal Gossip are unusually full. The Week well deserves the cordial support of all intelligent Canadians.

The contract for printing the forms for the forthcoming Census of England and Wales has been secured by Messrs. Darling and Son, Limited, of Great St. Thomas Apostle and Eastcheap, E. C. When it is stated that this is one of the largest orders issued by Her Majesty's Stationery Office, it will be readily understood that the competition for the contract is unusually keen, and of wide extent. The number of copies printed exceeds nine millions, and some idea of the amount of paper utilized may be gleaned from the fact that in measurement it would cover a distance of more than 1,500 miles.

GET A FLAG

FOR 100K

SCHOOLHOUSE

The movement for hoisting the Canadian flag on the schoolhouses on anniversaries of noted events in our history is spreading rapidly throughout the Dominion and evoking the hearty approval of all patriotic citizens. Already has done its share in helping on this movement, by awarding a handsome flag to one school in each county of Ontario, but the number of enquiries from all parts of the Dominion as to how flags can be obtained by other schools has determined the publishers of THE EMPIRE to offer a handsome of best bunting, 12 feet long (regular price $10), as a premium for 20 new yearly subscribers to the WEEKLY EMPIRE. $2.50 in exchange for yearly subscribers to THE DAILY EMPIRE at $5 per annum, or a premium of one subscription to Daily Empire for 100K Weeklies.

Every school in the Dominion ought to have a national flag, and this offer presents an opportunity for each obtaining it without cost, and with little trouble. Let those who are interested in getting a flag for their school house join in getting up a club, and while subscribers get full value for the money in the best newspaper in the Dominion, the school obtains a flag FREE OF COST.

The WEEKLY EMPIRE has recently been enlarged to twelve pages, and is now, without doubt, the best weekly newspaper in Canada, with the reputation of THE DAILY EMPIRE as the leading morning journal of the Dominion is well known.

Send for sample copies and special clubbing lists, and go in for a flag for your school. ADDRESS THE EMPIRE, Toronto.
